COACH EXPECTATIONS AND REPNOSIBILITIES

The coach must be aware that he may have a tremendous influence, for good or bad, in the life of the player/cheerleader, and thus shall never place the value of winning above the value of the individual player – his/her health, character, and development are paramount.

The coach must constantly uphold the honor and dignity of the profession. In all personal contact with players, officials, parents, the media, and the public, the coach shall strive to set an example of the highest moral and ethical conduct. This includes never "playing favorites" in practice or in games, never favoring one's own child above others, and being as fair as possible in assigning positions and playing time. Players need to earn their positions every year, and the efforts and contributions of all players must be recognized.

The coach shall promote academic achievement, always emphasizing that school comes before sports. Where appropriate, the coach shall take an active role in the prevention of drug, alcohol, and tobacco abuse, and shall under no circumstances condone or promote their use.

The coach shall be fully aware of safety issues pertaining to preparing for and playing the game, performance or competition, including but not limited to stretching and warming up, fitting and using equipment, and playing/performing in a safe manner. If you have questions, see the Board.

The coach shall be well acquainted with current rules and is responsible for their interpretation to players/cheerleaders. Coaches who are relatively inexperienced should feel comfortable approaching experienced coaches to ask for help in this and other regards. Coaches shall always be open to helping each other.

The coach shall be fully prepared for every practice and game, and will see that his assistants are prepared as well. You should have written plans and a schedule for each practice.

The coach will encourage respect and support for officials. Inciting players and/or spectators against officials is prohibited.

The coach should always emphasize sportsmanship by players and spectators, and with his assistants should greet and exchange greetings with rival coaches before and after the game.

The coach shall refrain from using profanity. Disagreements with parents or other coaches should never occur in front of players. Let it go or take it somewhere else.

I have read the responsibilities and expectations for coaches. I agree to these expectations, and commit to fulfilling them to the best of my ability.
